My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE Wisdom and Firmness that have distinguished your Conduct during the present Session, and the Attention you have afforded to the many important Objects of your Deliberations, demand my sincere Acknowledgements, and enable me to relieve you from further Attendance in Parliament.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have His Majesty's Commands to thank you for the liberal Supplies you have voted for the Public Service, and for the honourable Support of His Majesty's Government. You may rely upon their faithful Application.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Wisdom and Liberality with which you attended to His Majesty's Recommendation in Favour of his Roman Catholic Subjects, are highly pleasing to the King. You must be fully sensible of His Majesty's gracious Condescension in committing to your Judgment the Application of the Hereditary Revenue: And I am ordered by His Majesty to signify His Approbation of the Provisions which have been made for the Support of His Civil Government and the Honour and Dignity of His Crown; and to express his Confidence that your liberal Concessions to the Roman Catholics, and the Measures for the Regulation of the Public Expenditure, and for the Limitation of Offices and Pensions, to which His Majesty has been graciously pleased to consent with a View to the Advantage of the Public, will cement a general Union of Sentiment among all Classes of His Majesty's Subjects in Support of the established Constitution.

His Majesty has seen, with real Satisfaction, that friendly Disposition, which has been manifested by the the Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland, for ſtrengthening the Connexion of the Two Kingdoms by mutual Acts of Conceſſion. I am authoriſed to acquaint you that an Act has paſſed the Britiſh Parliament to permit Goods of Aſia, Africa or America, legally imported into Ireland, to be imported from thence into Great Britain. This is a ſignal Proof of her Attention to your Intereſts; whilſt the Confirmation of the Charter of the Eaſt India Company by the Parliament of Ireland, diſplays on your Part a cordial Zeal for the Support of Great Britain, and a judicious Conſideration of the great and eſſential Intereſts of the Empire.

I am to make my Acknowledgements for the many ſalutary Laws you have enacted to ſtrengthen the Executive Government, which will materially tend to defeat the Deſigns of the Enemies to the Freedom and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

The Apprehenſions of Embarraſſment, which for a Time hung over Commercial Tranſactions, were to me a Subject of the utmoſt Anxiety; and I am to return you my Thanks for ſanctioning thoſe Meaſures which I took in Support of Credit, and which, I truſt, have had the happieſt Effect in preventing the ill Conſequences of ſuch Apprehenſions.

The Spirit of Diſcontent, which prevailed amongſt the lower Claſſes of the People at the Beginning of the Seſſion, has ſince burſt into Acts of Riot and Inſurrection; and I have been under the painful Neceſſity of employing His Majeſty's Forces, whoſe Steadineſs and good Conduct have on all Occaſions been manifeſted, and by whoſe Exertions the Civil Magiſtrates have been enabled, in a great Meaſure, to reſtore to general Tranquillity.

Under all the Circumſtances of the Country, I thought it proper to call forth a very conſiderable Portion of the Militia of this Kingdom. I am to expreſs His Majeſty's Approbation of a Meaſure which affords a preſent material Aſſiſtance, and lays the Foundation of a permanent Conſtitutional Force, that has been found, by Experience in Great Britain, of great Reſource in public Emergencies.

His Majeſty feels with the greateſt Concern the Expence brought upon His People by Domeſtic Diſturbances, added to the Conſequences of a Foreign War, into which we have been forced by the wanton and unprovoked Aggreſſion of France; but you will reflect that you are contending for the Preſervation of your Property and for the Security of your happy Conſtitution.

The Succeſſes with which it hath pleaſed the Divine Providence to bleſs the Arms of His Majeſty and his Allies, afford the beſt Proſpect of a happy Iſſue to this important Conteſt; and it is His Majeſty's earneſt Hope, that a Continuance of vigorous Exertions will finally obtain a ſecure and laſting Peace.

I have entire Confidence that in your reſpective Counties you will exert your utmoſt Influence in maintaining the Public Tranquillity and in carrying the Law in full Execution: You may be aſſured that I ſhall, on all Occaſions, take the moſt ſpeedy and effectual Meaſures, in the Exerciſe of thoſe Powers with which I am inveſted, for the Repreſſion of Outrage and Tumult, and the Protection of His Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

After which the Speaker, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure that this Parliament be prorogued to Wedneſday the 25th Day of September next, to be then here holden: And this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Wedneſday the 25th Day of September next.
